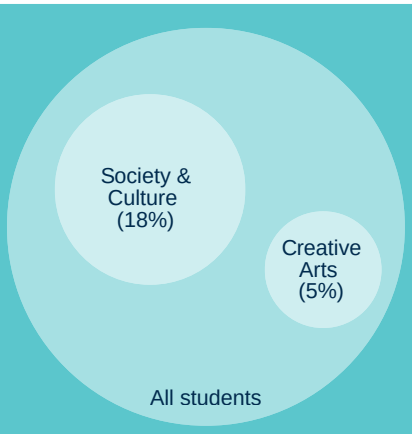
Impacts & Outcomes

Arts, Social Sciences & Humanities in Australia

Who are our students?

397,574 enrolments



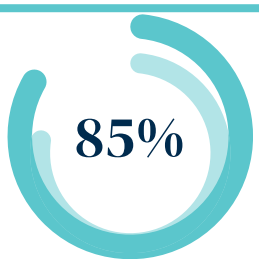
22% of female & gender diverse students are studying Society & Culture programs.

29% of First Nations students are studying Society & Culture programs.

Student experience

Society & Culture

Undergraduate overall satisfaction
(average 77%)



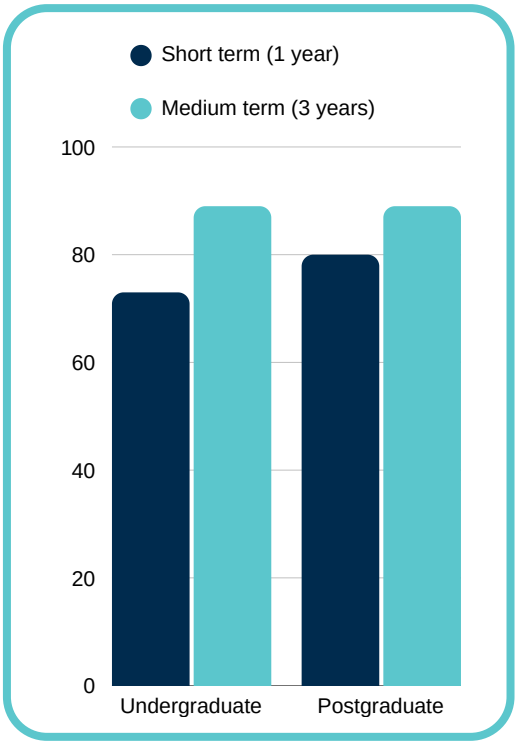
Postgraduate overall satisfaction
(average 79%)

Teaching quality

Postgraduate Humanities, Culture & Social Sciences students rate teaching quality 91%, the highest of any discipline.

Employment outcomes

Humanities, Culture & Social Sciences graduates in full-time employment



Graduate skills

Rated by employers

Skills	Creative Arts	Society & Culture
Adaptive	91%	93%
Collaborative	91%	90%
Technical	91%	93%

> The three skills most in shortage in Australia are active listening, critical thinking & reading comprehension.
>
> – Skills for Jobs, Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development

dassh

Promoting the Arts, Social Sciences and Humanities

The Australasian Council of Deans of Arts, Social Sciences & Humanities acknowledges the First Nations peoples on whose unceded lands we live, work & share knowledge.

About DASSH: The Australasian Council of Deans of Arts, Social Sciences & Humanities represents more than 350 Deans, Pro Vice-Chancellors, Heads of School, Associate & Deputy Deans from 42 universities across Australia & Aotearoa New Zealand.