

DASSH ADR Network Pre-Meeting
Australian National University
Venue: McDonald room, Menzies Library
Wednesday 12th September 2018

10.00 - 10.30 Registration & coffee

10.30 - 10.40 Welcome to Country

10.40 - 10.50 Opening Remarks -

Discussion Session 1: Engagement and Impact

10.50 - 12.20 In this session small groups will discuss and respond to two documents. Professor Helen Groth is preparing a draft response from DASSH to the ARC providing feedback on the pilot Engagement and Impact process. Professor Michael Wesley of the ANU College of the Asia Pacific has drafted a position paper on measuring impact for HASS.

12.20 - 1.00 Lunch. Topic for chatting about: What HASS Centre of Excellence bids should we be developing for 2020?

Panel: How to grow Indigenous research capacity at your institution

1.00 - 2.20 A conversation with Professor Juanita Sherwood, Academic Director, National Centre for Cultural Competence, University of Sydney: How to increase Indigenous research capacity in universities.

2.20 - 3.00 Afternoon tea. Topic for chatting about: what changes do we want to see to the FoRs in the recently-announced review?

Discussion Session 2: Responding to the way key decision-makers judge the quality of NTROs as academic research

3.00 - 4.30 In this session small groups will consider the results of a survey of key decision makers about how they judge the quality of NTROs as academic research, and discuss the best ways to respond to this information in terms of strategy both for individual institutions, and the HASS sector as a whole.

4.30 - 5.00 Wrap up, future directions

6.00 DASSH Conference reception and welcome