

Arts, Social Sciences and Humanities Graduates are highly employable

In Australia, Arts, Social Sciences and Humanities students are highly satisfied with their studies moving into well paid and rewarding careers.

Employers appreciate their foundational, technical, adaptive and collaborative skills.

80%

Of Humanities, Culture and Social Sciences students were satisfied with the overall education experience compared with the 77 per cent average.

91%

The level of employer satisfaction with employability skills of Society and Culture graduates.

Adaptive skills of Society and Culture graduates are rated 93%.

89%

Of Humanities, Culture and Social Sciences graduates are in full-time employment within three years of graduation.

$85,000

Earnings for Humanities, Culture and Social Sciences graduates has increased from $82,000 three years after graduating.

60%

Of Humanities, Culture and Social Sciences graduates are in professional roles

within three years of graduating.